Polio, Flu Drive Begins On Campus

Three-day polio and flu drive begins Thursday on Brigham Young University campus. Sponsored by the Blue Key national honorary, inoculations will be given to students Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the price of 75 cents each while flu and polio shots can be had for the clearance price of $1.50 for both.

Begins Early

Student health center will be open from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. to give students shots. The drive is aimed at Freshman who have not had polio shots and other

BYU students who have started the series of Polio shots but have not received their second or third shot.

The first two shots are given four to six weeks apart while the third should be taken seven to twelve months after the second. Students should get their first shot now and will be able to get their third shot before school closes next spring.

Reduces Cases

In as many as studies show that young adults are among the hardest hit by polio attack and although Salk vaccine has reduced the number of polio cases per year, persons are still not protected even though their neighbor has had his three shots.

The Blue Keys urge BYU students to take advantage of this drive. Two inoculations of the vaccine offer 80 per cent protection for at least one polio season while a third protects up to 90 per cent and gives longer immunity.

Experiments Prove Paralysis Weapon

Recent experiments have shown that gamma globulin is effective in blocking the paralysis weapon against poliomyelitis.

Students of Brigham Young University will take the opportunity to donate this life giving serum between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. on December 10, 11, and 12 during the Red Cross Blood Drive.

Managers of the Air Force ROTC Sponsor Corps will assist the Red Cross in the drive. Sponsor booths are set up in the Eyring Science Center, Smith Bldg and McKay Bldg for those wishing to make appointments to donate blood.

Since this discovery of gamma globulin as a weapon against poliomyelitis, the importance of collecting blood to provide the maximum amount of globulin possible, has been emphasized.

It takes a little more than one pint of whole blood to produce an average dose of gamma globulin. This globulin contains antibodies that attack the poliomyelitis virus.

If it follows pattern, poliomyelitis may strike in large proportions in at least 150 countries next summer. Working around the clock at full capacity, biological laboratories that are equipped to produce gamma globulin can provide only a part of the serum needed in time for the next epidemic season.

Members of the Red Cross team have expressed the wish that BYU students will attain and far exceed the quota of 450 pints.

Sales Prestige Lowers For Medium-Price Cars

by Frank Snyder

DETROIT, (AP) — When the medium-priced car field was last losing its sales prestige, it was pointed up by Ward's automatic reports.

The low-priced car buyer, Ward's said, spends on the average of $500 for such optional equipment as automatic transmissions, power steering, power brakes, tinted glass, radios and heaters.

THE EXTRAS BRING the delivered price of the car to well over $2000 which represents the cost of a medium-priced auto with standard equipment.

"It is significant that the year-to-year rise in low-price field accessory installation rates find some correlation in the progressive decline in auto sales in the medium-price class," Ward's comments.

"Thus the growing preference for auto accessories may well deserve equal ranking with car price increases in explaining the sales suffering in the medium-price group."

BESIDES THE $500 differential between low and medium-price standard-equipped cars at a factory list there is another price differential in accessories that the buyer finds difficult to bridge.

Citing several concrete examples, Ward's said a heater costs $25 more on a medium-price car than it does on a low-price one, and there is a difference of more than $50 between the price of automatic transmissions in the two divisions.

Wattsmen Start Hoop Season In Jaunt to 'Evergreen' State

Brigham Young University is warming up its hoop machine for the coming basketball race.

University of Washington's Huskies will test Coach Stan Watts' "Cougarmobile" Friday and Saturday in Seattle. It will be BYU's defending Conference champions' first game of the season and a chance to show if they can repeat for the title this year.

BYU FANS are hoping that Watts' warriors will start hitting on all eight cylinders and keep doing it through the post season tournaments.

'Big Eight' Members Gun for KU

by International News Service

The "Big Seven" Conference now is the "Big Eight," but Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain still is the biggest thing in the Midwest.

However, with four starters graduated from the supporting cast that helped Chamberlain and Kansas to a conference title last season, the seven-foot center may not receive the help he needs to give the Jayhawks another loop championship.

PIONEER CANDIDATE COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO.

(AP)—Representatives from Grand Junction are eyeing the opening in the Pioneer Baseball League created by the move of Salt Lake City to the Pacific Coast League.

NFL SCORING LEADER PHILADELPHIA, (AP)—

Jimmy Brown of Cleveland clung tenaciously to his lead over the rest of the National Football League's rubbers today despite being held to a scant 57 yards when the Browns beat the Chicago Cardinals Sunday.

Expected to be a "sparkplug" in the Cougar maple attack is sophomore guard Valoy Eaton who aided the Kittens in last year's undefeated season.

Center Dick Sawyer and Gary Miles, forwards John Nicoll and Lynn Gleave, along with guards Mel Wilkes and Russ Peterson are touted to keep the Cougars from running out of gas.

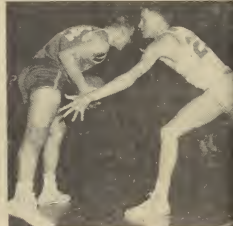

CENTER ROY Thacker is ineligible until January while forward Russ Jones is nursing an ankle injury which is expected to be completely healed soon.

The Huskie-Cougar clash will give both coaches a chance to see their cagers under fire after weeks of blackboard notes and intra-squad scrimmages. For Watts this could mean that forwards John Gustin, Jack Craven, Bill Treu, Gray Crandall and Don Helm are going to be watched as potential starters for the Skyline Wars beginning Jan. 10 with Montana U. at Missoula.

Guards Mac Madsen, Larry Crowley, Don Volpi, Jim Rice and Roger Campbell are guard candidates to start at positions.

ON THE HUSKIE side of the ledger, Coach Tippy Dye has everyone back from his last year's starting five except Bruno Boon. Doug Smart, 6-7 sharpshooter who led the Huskies to second place with UCLA last year, is expected to be the big obstacle for the Cougars.

A psychological factor in this game could be the fact that Washington is ineligible for the Pacific Coast Conference championship due to an NCAA ruling handed down in 1953.

Problems Beset Salt Lake In Baseball Franchise Quar

by International News Service

SALT LAKE CITY—Baseball fans in Salt Lake City are in the dark as to whether or not they have a Pacific Coast franchise in Salt Lake City.

Nick Morgan Jr., representing a Salt Lake City group, is acquiring the Hollywood franchise of the PCL terms had been agreed upon contingent upon the National or the Pacific Coast League in delivering the Salt Lake City to the purchaser.

Bob Cobb, owner of the Hollywood franchise, said the PCL would have no part of any negotiations in the sale of the Salt Lake City territory and that Salt Lake City ownership of the Hollywood franchise must assume the sale with Leishman.
